

Professional cables (extra strong)

<https://ehle-hd.com/en/product/professional-cables-extra-strong/>

The professional cable (extra strong) is a rugged and tempered version of our standard cables, but with higher strength and traction. The cable is designed for heavy blockades which require higher traction and heavy tools, e.g. cutters and milling heads.

Features

- extra strong for heavy tools
- with T-Coupling
- for cutting und milling work
- perfect for longer distances
